

Seven-Day Amitabha Chanting Retreat

To bid farewell to the old year and welcome in the New Year, we sincerely invite Venerable Master Tze Cheng to preside over the Seven-Day Amitabha Chanting Retreat and The Compassionate Samadhi Water Repentance Dharma Service. These retreat and service are for practitioners to repent their past wrongs, cleanse their bodies and minds, celebrate the year to come, and transfer all the merits obtained to the flourishing of Buddhadharma, alleviation of suffering for beings in the Three Lower Realms, prosperity of nations, wellness of people and world peace.

Date: December 23 to 29, 2018, 8:00am to 9:30pm Daily

Content: ☉ Recitation of the Amitabha Sutra.
☉ Chanting Amitabha Buddha's holy name.

The Compassionate Samadhi Water Repentance Dharma Service

Origin: During the Tang Dynasty, National Master Wu Da had a human-faced abscess which was caused by the accumulation of bad karma in previous lives. Venerable Kanaka provided him with the Samadhi water to cleanse his bad karma away. Throughout time, practitioners of this repentance method have experience tremendous effects.

Purpose: This repentance service is conducted during the New Year for practitioners to recite the moral repentance text to understand the laws of Cause and Effect. It is also an opportunity to sincerely pay homage to the Buddhas while eliminating their karmic hindrances and increasing their blessings.

Date: January 1 to January 2, 2019

Jan1	8:00 AM ~ 9:30 PM
Jan 2	8:00AM ~ 5:00 PM

※ During the Dharma Retreats and Services:
