

Emperor Liang's Jeweled Repentance
with Offering of a Thousand Lamps Dharma Service 2019
—Prayers for the Peace of the Land, the Cessation of Calamities, the Repentance of Transgressions, the Arrival of Blessings, and the Expression of Gratitude Purpose: During this service, we will pray for world peace, blessings and wisdom. May our parents and foes be free of suffering. May Buddhism flourish and benefit all beings.

Dates & Times: March 22 to 31, 2019, 8:00 a.m. ~ 9:30 p.m daily

Content:

1. During the ten-day service, focus on the scripture of Emperor Liang's Jeweled Repentance, thereby calming the body and mind and revealing our innate wisdom. Through earnest repentance and prostration, reconnect the body and mind with purity and tranquility, eradicate negative karma and receive blessings.
2. Venerable Master Tze Cheng will preside over the service under the guidance of the Masters, recite the scripture and engage in repentance; solemnly and respectfully participate in this especially auspicious service while adhering to the Dharma and Buddhist discipline.
3. The chanting at Lingyen Mountain Temple follows the tradition of ancient forest monasteries in Mainland China. The sound is graceful and soothing. Listening to this chanting can bring us calm and purity, help us connect with the teachings, as well as other inconceivable benefits.
4. Report to the Information Centre before 6:00 p.m. on March 21. An explanation of the accommodation rules will be given at 6:30 p.m. and the Ground Purification Ceremony will begin at 7:30 p.m. Those who intend to stay over at the temple during the service should register as early as possible.

Contribution Methods:

(Make any contribution you like whether big or small, the merit is the same.)

You can offer a plaque for the deceased or the living or you can make a lamp offering to the Buddha. The categories of lamps include Lamp of Blessings, Lamp of Auspiciousness, and Lamp of Wisdom.
